

Ron Thompson
2005 Friend of Education

For his entire life, Mr. Thompson has been involved in education as a teacher, principal, technical college administrator, and volunteer. During his years in education and after retiring, he served on committees aimed at assisting students with a smooth transition from school to a career.

Mr. Thompson has served on the district/community Business/Education Partnership Committee for over 8 years and has contributed greatly. He has chaired a number of work and study groups. "His past experience and leadership abilities have kept the committee viable," said one of Mr. Thompson's nominators. "His opinions are valued by all in attendance." Mr. Thompson has contributed to numerous school district committees and activities. He currently serves on the Beaver Dam High School Scholarship Committee and is a past member of the Wall of Fame Committee.
